What is The Reynolds High School Alumni Association?

The Alumni Association is a group of Reynolds High School graduates and community members who are interested in promoting Reynolds High School.

Why was the Alumni Association formed?

- To encourage camaraderie between Reynolds graduates and others who are interested in the well being of Reynolds High School.

- To provide assistance for current students.
- To keep members informed about what is happening at Reynolds High School and with other members.
- To undertake special school related projects
- To provide an annual scholarship to a graduating senior of Reynolds, who have promoted Reynolds' legacy of excellence through Academics, Athletics, Arts, and/or Community Service.

What does the Alumni Association do for its members?

The Association will plan special events for its members, such as Homecoming activities, hall of fame activities, and alumni nights at school sporting events. The Association will also be available to assist others with independent school related activities, such as locating alumni of class reunions. The Association will communicate through its website and other outlets to notify members of current school events and information that is of interest to alumni. Discounts and promotional offers from local businesses and school related programs are also made available to our
