

Reynolds Elementary Holds Daddy Daughter Night

The Reynolds PTO held their annual Daddy Daughter Dance at Reynolds Elementary. The girls and their dad, or other adult male figure in their life attended the dance. This year, however, there was a twist... they needed to solve a mystery! Reynolds Elementary girls and their fathers each received a case file with a checklist to figure out The Case of the Missing Diamond Ring. Sammy Jo Reeher lost her ring and believed that one of the suspects might have taken it, but who? The couples searched for clues and talked to the suspects to figure out who did it! Was it Salena, the teacher, Jessi, the police officer, Kerri, the out-of-work actress, Holly, the shopaholic, Jen, the socialite, Amy, the cyclist, Heidi, the all American Mom and Horse trainer, or Jen the chef. Rumor has it that the fathers enjoyed this twist to the evening. The girls, also, enjoy dancing to their favorite fast and slow songs! This event co-chaired by Salena Roy and Kerry McCowien.

Article submitted by Mrs. Colleen Miller

